The Federal Government Source for Women's Health Information

Thank you for requesting a media kit from womenshealth.gov and for your interest in promoting women's health.

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Office on Women's Health, womenshealth.gov offers free women's health information on more than 800 topics through our call center (800-994-9662; TDD 888-220-5446) and web site.

English and Spanish speaking callers can request health information on topics such as:

- Pregnancy
- HIV/AIDS and other STDs
- Cancers in women
- Menopause
- Heart health
- Body image
- Smoking cessation
- Breastfeeding
- Women with disabilities
- Nutrition, exercise, and diet
- Mental health

We are also the National Breastfeeding Helpline (800-994-9662), where trained breastfeeding peer counselors provide support and encouragement for all types of breastfeeding questions and concerns. Our staff can answer breastfeeding questions in English or Spanish.

Thank you again for your support of womenshealth.gov and for your efforts to encourage healthy behaviors in all women.

Sincerely,

Valerie Scardino
